Report No.1564 dated 14th February 1918 from the Officer Commanding the Depot, Imperial Service Lancers, Bangalore, to the Chief Commandant, Mysore State Troops, Bangalore.

With reference to Chief Commandant's No.6614 dated 22nd January 1918, has the honor to state that,

1. after the Imperial Government horses under training in this Depot, were handed over to the British Remount training Depot at Bangalore on the 22nd January 1917, an allowance of Rs.5/- per month that had been sanctioned to salustry Khassim Sheriff for looking after the above horses, ceased, and a fresh case was put out by the then Officer Commanding this Depot in his report No.1543 dated 17th May 1917 to grant an allowance of Rs.5/- each from 1st May 1917 to Salustry Khassim Sheriff for veterinary duties, and to Farrier Khadir Hussain for Farrier Major's duties on enquiry, Khassim Sheriff says that Khadir Hussain was not doing the Farrier Major's duties before, but the former --- Commanding Officer Risaldar Abdul Gaffar wanted to appoint Khadir Hussain as Farrier Major, and give him some allowance for his duties as such.

Annexure 5 with 2 No. references made in 1149 (para 2)

2. It is only from 1st May 1917, a proposal has been submitted to give allowances to the aforesaid two individuals separately for their different duties.

3. Jemadar Chengari says that he went to Mysore 3 times since June 1917. The Commandant Mysore Horse has been requested to intimate the actual number of days the Jemadar remained at Mysore on each occasion. His reply has not yet been received here.

4. Under the foregoing circumstances, it is recommended that a temporary allowance of Rs.5/- each may be granted from 1st May 1917 to Salustry Khassim Sheriff as he has often to attend to Veterinary work in the Depot in connection with the increased number of 400 horses, during the absence of the veterinarian on other duties etc., and to Farrier Khader Hussain for doing the duties of the Farrier Major until the return of
